+58. Russell Boyd (4) Trueblood b. 26 Jun 1907
+59. Blanche Elizabeth (4) Trueblood b. 19 Mar 1910

The area Northwest of Salem, IN, was an early Quaker settlement. Prominent among the Quaker families who settled there were the Baynes, Truebloods, Rivelys and Witters. Beeson and Lowry H. Baynes removed from Valley Forge, Chester County, PA, in 1855 traveling overland to the headwaters of the Ohio River, thence by boat to New Albany, IN, and finally to the settlement of Friends at Salem. One of their daughters, Elizabeth P. Baynes, (b. 31 Oct 1846; d. 9 Jun 1927) married Joshua Gresham Trueblood (b. 25 Mar 1839; d. 23 May 1906) a son of Nathan and Mary Trueblood, early arrivals at Salem. The Witters and Rivelys, who were also Quakers, arrived in Feb 1865. Many of the children of these families intermarried - sometimes sisters marrying brothers. Accordingly, these families are intertwined. Grace Idola Witter and Thomas Brown Trueblood were married by his uncle, Elwood Trueblood, the Prophet of Blue River, at Highland Meeting, Washington County, IN. Grace and her husband farmed until 1921 when they removed to Shelby Street, Salem.

Dear Cousin:

Enclosed is the family entry for your son, Percy. I have written him asking him to update his family entry, but have received no reply. Accordingly, I am appealing to you for help.

Could you fill in the middle name of his wife, Bernice? And give me any change in his entry which should be made? I need to know whether any of his children have been married. If so, will you ask them to fill out one of the enclosed Merwin family record sheets. Or, if you wish, send me their addresses and I shall write them.

Your assistance will be much appreciated. Hope you are well.

HOW IT BEGAN

In 1962, I, Merwyn Buchanan, authored and distributed to family members, The Descendants of James D & Margaret (Humes) Witter. This was a mere outline of their descendants which I prepared to satisfy my curiosity about my father's family and desire to at least begin a genealogy of the family. Although I had intended to do the necessary research to revise that work into a full-blown genealogy, I lacked the necessary time and experience to do so.

In 1977, I was commissioned by the Miles Merwin (1623-1697) Association, Inc., Milford, CT, to prepare a genealogy of the descendants of Miles Merwin the immigrant ancestor from whom I am an eleventh generation descendant through my mother, B. Minnie F. (Greene) Buchanan. In 1978, The Merwin Family in North America was published and it consisted of 5045 descendants in ten generations recorded in 1115 pages. In 1983, Volume II was published to carry the record up to the fourteenth generation. This experience as Genealogist of the Association (a post I still hold) taught me how a genealogy should be written. Accordingly, I have undertaken to prepare and publish this genealogy, confident that I am able to prepare an adequate record of the descendants of JD and Maggie Witter which I promised myself to do twenty-six years ago.

This work has been quite enjoyable because it enabled me to renew acquaintances with many of my cousins and to meet new ones.

One comment to put this work in focus. Although James D and Margaret (Humes) Witter had eight children, only two are known to have had children who married and had children of their own. Thus only Catherine Witter and William James Witter had grandchildren and later descendants. Accordingly, this genealogy is mainly about the descendants of only Catherine and William James.

It is my hope that this book will bring our family a bit closer and that one of my cousins will, some day, carry on the record through subsequent generations. My thanks to all of the people who contributed information about their families. I shall appreciate receiving any additional information or corrections anyone may offer. Despite my best efforts, this genealogy (like all genealogies) will contain some errors.

commenced business in Oct, 1877. In 1881, the mill on the Brandywine at Henry Clay, Delaware, was rented from the Du Ponts, and in August of that year Barlow and Thatcher commenced business in Henry Clay. Jacob Barlow moved to Henry Clay where he lived in one of the houses attached to the mill. His wife died in 1887 and after that his sister, Ann Barlow Brooks, with her two daughters, Elizabeth and Emma, came to live with him and kept house for him for many years. In 1888, the business was incorporated as the Barlow and Thatcher Spinning Co., with Jacob Barlow as president. On 1 Mar 1892, a new mill at Piedmont, Alabama, was opened, under the name of Coosa Manufacturing Co. In 1897, the spinning of cotton yarn at Henry Clay, DE, was discontinued and the mill merged with the one in the south. In 1898, after the sale of the machinery in the Delaware mill, Jacob Barlow retired from active business and moved to Darby, PA. He was, however, a member of the board of the Coosa Manufacturing Co., until his death. In 1904, after his marriage to Sara Elizabeth Buchanan, he moved to Germantown, Philadelphia.

Jacob Barlow applied for and received a government pension 28 Aug 1905 on the basis of his military service.

In 1900 [2] Jacob Barlow was a widower living with his widowed sister, Ann Brooks, and his niece, Elizabeth Brooks, in Colwyn, Delaware County, PA. Elizabeth is the Elizabeth Brooks who later married William James Witter [11], Sara Elizabeth Buchanan's uncle.

Sara Buchanan Barlow's occupation, as shown on her marriage license, was that of dressmaker. Her husband, Jacob Barlow, immigrated from England in 1856. His first wife was Elizabeth Greenhalgh whom he mar. about 1856 [10] in England; she was b. 27 Oct 1829 in England; d. 19 May 1887 [10], at Henry Clay, New Castle County, Delaware; bur. __________, at __________ Cem., Wilmington, DE, by whom he had three children the first b. in England, the other two b. in Darby Township:

Daniel Mills Barlow b. ____________
John Hall Barlow b. _________1862 [12]
Jacob T_______ Barlow b. ___________1864 [12]

THE FELL & HOVEY FAMILIES, Compiled by J. Howard Fell, Published 1939 in Philadelphia, PA, p. 27, states that Jesse Barlow, son of William Barlow, b. 1795 in Lancashire, England; d. 11 Mar 1882 in Brandywine Hundred, DE., mar. in England and, after his wife died, emigrated to America with their seven children (including Jacob) arriving at Philadelphia 14 Nov 1851 after a long voyage by sailing ship. This is not completely true since we know that in the 1900 U.S. Census [11] Jacob Barlow stated that he immigrated in 1856 and his sister, Ann Barlow Brooks, stated she emigrated in 1851. Accordingly, Jacob came in 1856 with his first wife and first son. Jacob Barlow's people were cotton mill workers and he went to work in the mills at the age of ten. He emigrated and settled in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA, were he was employed in the mill of James Wilde as a warper. He left that position in Aug, 1862 to enlist, with his brother Joseph. His military record [12] shows that he enlisted in Media, Delaware County, PA, at age 28, for a period of nine months as a private in Co. B, 124 Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry, 1 Division, 12 Corps. In his record, he is described as: height 5' 11-1/4", light complexion, blue eyes, brown hair; born in England; occupation: Warper. He was mustered in at Harrisburg, PA, 9 Aug 1862. On 9 Sep 1862 he was absent sick in Washington, DC. On 17 Sep 1862, during action near Sharpsburg, MD, in the Battle of Antietam, a bullet struck the left side of his neck and passed through him striking and killing his brother, Joseph Barlow. Jacob was only slightly hurt. In Oct 1862, he was absent sick in a hospital at Harpers Ferry, WV. The next notation dated Nov 1862 states he was absent sick since 25 Oct 1862 at Masters Street Hospital, Philadelphia, PA. On 10 Apr 1863 he was present at ward 12, Mower U.S.A. Hospital, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, PA. On 22 Apr 1863, he was discharged by reason of expiration of service and mustered out at Camp Curtin, PA, 16 May 1863. When peace was declared, he returned to work in the Wilde mills, and after the death of Mr. Wilde in 1872 he was employed as a warper in the mill of Richard Thatcher. He remained here until five years later, when the mill was destroyed by fire. In 1877, he obtained employment with Thomas Hughes & Co. at Hulmeville, Bucks County, PA, which mill he and Albert Thatcher later bought. They

Sara Buchanan Barlow's occupation, as shown in [illegible] was that of dressmaker. Her husband, Jacob Barlow, [illegible] England in 1856. His first wife was Elizabeth [illegible] about 1856 [10] in England; she [illegible] May 1867 [10], at [illegible] County, Delaware [illegible] at ________ [illegible] children, the first b. in England, the other two b. in [illegible]

Daniel Willis Barlow b. ________
John Hall Barlow b. ________ 1862 [12]
Jacob T. ____ Barlow b. ________ 1864 [12]

THE PELL & BROOKS FAMILIES, compiled by [illegible], published 1939 in Philadelphia, PA, p. [illegible], states that Jacob's father, [illegible] Barlow, b. 1795 in Lancashire, England; d. 11 Mar 1882 in Brandywine Hundred, DE., mar. in England and, after his wife died, emigrated to America with their seven children (including Jacob) arriving at Philadelphia 14 Nov 1851 after a long voyage by sailing ship. This is not completely true since we know that in the 1900 U.S. Census [11] Jacob Barlow stated that he immigrated in 1856 and his sister, Ann Barlow Brooks, stated she emigrated in 1851. Accordingly, Jacob came in 1856 with his first wife and first son. Jacob Barlow's people were cotton mill workers and he went to work in the mills at the age of ten. He emigrated and settled in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA, were he was employed in the mill of James Wilde as a warper. He left that position in Aug, 1862 to enlist, with his brother Joseph. His military record [12] shows that he enlisted in Media, Delaware County, PA, at age 28, for a period of nine months as a private in Co. B, 124 Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry, 1 Division, 12 Corps. In his record, he is described as: height 5' 11-1/4", light complexion, blue eyes, brown hair; born in England; occupation: Warper. He was mustered in at Harrisburg, PA, 9 Aug 1862. On 9 Sep 1862 he was absent sick in Washington, DC. On 17 Sep 1862, during action near Sharpsburg, MD, in the Battle of Antietam, a bullet struck the left side of his neck and passed through him striking and killing his brother, Joseph Barlow. Jacob was only slightly hurt. In Oct 1862, he was absent sick in a hospital at Harpers Ferry, WV. The next notation dated Nov 1862 states he was absent sick since 25 Oct 1862 at Western Street Hospital, Philadelphia, PA. On 10 Apr 1863 he was present at ward 12, Mower U.S.A. Hospital, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, PA. On 22 Apr 1863, he was discharged by reason of expiration of service and mustered out at Camp Curtin, PA, 16 May 1863. When peace was declared, he returned to work in the Wilde mills, and after the death of Mr. Wilde in 1872 he was employed as a warper in the mill of Richard Thatcher. He remained here until five years later, when the mill was destroyed by fire. In 1877, he obtained employment with Thomas Hughes & Co. at Hulmeville, Bucks County, PA, which mill he and Albert Thatcher later bought. They

Dear June and Leonard:

I'm still beavering away on the Supplement. Tonight I talked to Claudia and Gayle, Claude's children, on the phone. They were very gracious and I have finished their entries.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter I wrote to your son. Will you please help me get Rose's date of birth and place of birth (city + state) and a biography of Linden? That is all I need to finish his entry.

I guess you folks are getting ready to go on your winter vacation. If you are going South past Philly, remember we are right off the turnpike exit #25. Stop and see us.

Our best to you both,

Betty + Merwyn

Dear June:

I have been disappointed in not receiving a reply to my letter of July 5, 1984 requesting information about Linden's new wife.

To refresh your memory, I need Ellie's date and place of birth and the full name of both her parents incuding her mother's maiden name.

We are gathering material for the January Milestones now. Won't you please give me this information so I can report Linden's marriage in it?

Your note about the marriage of your son Linden was passed on to me.

I would like to put a notice in MILESTONES as well as update my records on your family. For this reason I am asking you for some information about Ellie Swingle.

Dear Cousins:

I have written your son twice to ask him whether either of his children are now married, but he has not replied.

As you know, we are writing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America. Enclosed is a draft of Terry's entry as it now stands. I would like to have the full names of Sandra's parents and learn the address of either of his children who may now be married so I may ask them to be included in Volume III.

Your help with this will be appreciated.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Cousin:

In reviewing my records, I found that I have written you more than three months ago requesting information about your family for inclusion in Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America, our genealogy.

It is possible that you have replied and I misfiled your letter since filing is not one of my strong points. If you have answered, please tell me so. If not, may I hear from you? Your answer will be much appreciated and ensure your being in the book.

Sincerely yours,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Cousin:

As you may know, we are in the process of updating family entries with the view to preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

Will you please give me any needed addition or correction of your entry as we now have it. A copy is enclosed.

If you have been born a Merwin (with the surname Merwin), you will be included in Volume III without question. You need not be a member of our Association. However, we would be pleased to have you join to support our efforts and be informed of the doings of Merwins around the globe. Just send me a check in the amount of $10 payable to Miles Merwin Assn. for annual dues and we will sign you up. If you are already a member, we appreciate your support.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Cousin:

As you may know, we are in the process of updating family entries with the view to preparing Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

Will you please give me any needed addition or correction of your entry as we now have it. A copy is enclosed.

If you have been born a Merwin (with the surname Merwin), you will be included in Volume III without question. You need not be a member of our Association. However, we would be pleased to have you join to support our efforts and be informed of the doings of Merwins around the globe. Just send me a check in the amount of $10 payable to Miles Merwin Assn. for annual dues and we will sign you up. If you are already a member, we appreciate your support.

Dear Folks:

Certainly appreciate all the data you sent me.

Enclosed is a rough draft of Eric's family entry. As you can see, I need his current address and a brief biography. When + from what high school did he graduate or attend. What is his occupation and employer, etc. The same sort of thing on Karen. Whatever they wish to include.

I have sent Dale and Cheri their drafts and asked for biographies.

Enclosed is the draft of the correction of the name "Madison". Did the Colesville records show the name as Matson? Also your sister's entry.

Your entry has also been amended to include Madeline's membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants.

My best to you and yours,

Merwyn

Dear Cousin:

It has been many weeks since we wrote you asking for an update on your family record and you have not replied.

We do want to include your family in Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America, but we can not do so unless you reply. If there is no change in your entry, please tell me so. It will only take a moment for you to reply.

If I do not hear from you by March 31st, your record will be filed and omitted from Volume III. You will receive no other request.

Dear Cousin,

Now that the holidays are behind us, we are writing to remind you that your dues for our year to end June 1st have not been paid. We depend upon dues to fund "Milestones" and cover expenses such as meeting notices, address lists and correspondence so we would appreciate your continued support. Annual dues this year are $5.00.

The August issue of "Milestones" referred to our next genealogical project: An attempt to locate our immigrant ancestor's (Miles Merwin 1623-1697) place of birth and parentage. More recently a registered genealogist in England has been contracted to make a preliminary survey based upon leads which we were able to furnish. Our next steps will depend upon his results.

Please forward your dues payment at your early convenience. Any optional amount that you might wish to include to support our genealogical work would also be appreciated.

With best wishes for a happy and healthy 1985.

Sincerely yours,

Gaius Merwin

Dear Cousin:

In reply to your letter of August 24th, Kim's address is

5094 - 12th Avenue
Grandville, MI 49418

With respect to Darlene, I can see no reason for her letter not to be delivered. She lives at 5558 Marlin, Hudsonville. There is no "e" on the end of her street name. Maybe that was the reason?

I, too, have been lax in bringing you up-to-date on our family. Our daughter, Cheri Mead, had a daughter Amy Beth Mead born on December 11, 1985. She and her husband David, however, are now in the process of divorcing. I'll let you know when it is final and what she does then!

Sincerely,
